SERMON DESCRIPTION:

When Despair and Hope Sit Face to Face-What Happens?

Inspired by the song, Betty's Diner, by Carrie Newcomer, we will explore despair through Jungian concepts of light and shadow. We will also hear how despair, grief, and depression differ and how living in community is the best protection against despair

BIOGRAPHY:

Rev. Rinehart has been a Unitarian Universalist for over 20 years. She recently earned her master's degree in Divinity from Seattle University. She lives in Silverdale with her family, including her cat Chloe.

LIBRARY NOTES:

Have you visited our OUUF members and friends library lately? There are several new additions to the WORLD RELIGIONS section, including The Way of Zen, by Alan Watts, and The Way of Chuang Tzu, by Thomas Merton. Please feel free to explore the many treasures available there. As always, the books check out on the honor system and are easily returned by placing them in the library's return basket. By: Geri Napier

ANNUAL GLBTQ+ BALL

The Sequim Girls and Boys Club has an annual GLBTQ+ Ball. Thinking back to my adolescent days, WOW!, would this have been important! Instead of feeling invisible or hated . . . To have felt supported and worthy -- would have been so healing and affirming. This year, they did receive some negative feedback. Anyway, if you would like to support this activity, specifically, please make out a check to the Sequim Boys and Girls Club. In the memo section write GLBTQ+ Ball. You can take it or send it to the Sequim Boys and Girls Club: 400 West Fir Street, Sequim, WA. If needed, their phone number is 360-683-8095. With much appreciation, Ken Nielsen

ORIGAMI CHALLENGE UPDATE:

Yes, we do have some brave men at the fellowship. A few stepped up to the challenge and look what happened! Really men, it did not hurt that much, did it?

Ah, what wonderful results – Go, Scott !
